

Club Tropicana fashion show

Luxurious city centre lingerie boutique Prohibido hosted a glamorous summer fashion show at the 12a Club in Cambridge. Models showcased swimwear and lingerie collections as well as costume jewellery from American brand Stella & Dot, while guests enjoyed complimentary Pimms and ice cream. The catwalk extravaganza raised around £1,200 for Tom's Trust, a charity which cares for children with brain tumours.

Pictures by Keith Heppell

Jack with mum Catherine, left, and bootcamp leader Amber Bryan

Jubilee bootcamp

Fitness fans were put through their paces at a Jubilee Bootcamp in Waterbeach to raise money for Jack's Appeal. Organised by Amber Bryan, of Lovefit Training, the fun session raised £207 for Jack Kimberley, who lives in the village and has quadriplegic cerebral palsy and hydrocephalus.

Pictures by Richard Patterson